Green Isle Sportsmen Club

Members Present: Dave Sell, Sherri Urban, Joe Luskey, Scott & Wendy Scheidt, Jim Luskey, Nate Morreim, Bob Reid, Dean Reid, Kerby Kroells, Al Hahn, Jeff Ehrich, & Joyce Teubert

Meeting called to order.

Old Business:

Chuckar Challenge: Date has been set for April 16 & 17. Brian suggested a 1 day event. Scott motioned to leave at a 2 day event this year and take a survey for next year, 2nd by Joyce.

Special Gun Raffle: Nate picked up three Henry Lever Action .44 magnums. Sherri found a lady in Hutch to do the engraving.

New Business:

New Chapters: Two different groups of people, from two different areas, approached CPA showing interest in starting a new chapter. One group was at the meeting. The other group Al is going to visit to answer any questions they may have.

Glencoe Expo: Joyce was asked if CPA would be interested in running a booth for the Glencoe Expo on February 19 & 20. Kerby motioned that CPA should not, but MFWA would get the most benefit and could if they wanted to, Joe 2nd motion.

Glencoe Pond Project: Al sent Joyce a check for $4,000 for the Glencoe Pond project.

Website Delegate: Sherri volunteered to pass all dates and meeting minutes to our webmaster to post on the CPA website

Tax Time: Joyce wants everyone to balance their chapter checkbooks. All chapters need to have their paperwork complete by next meeting.

Prizes In: The BB gun traps for the kids prizes for the banquets have arrived.

Friends of High Island: Kerry Wuetherich and Jane Goettl came to the meeting asking for funding for the New Auburn Lake project. They need more funds to lower the water level to kill off the rough fish. They would also like to make a large rain garden. Joe motioned to table request, 2nd by Jim.

Lake Titloe: The Gaylord Lake Beautification Committee approached Al. They are looking for funding to replace the dam at Lake Titloe. The donations they receive are going to get matching funds. Joyce motioned to give $2,500 if the project is a for sure "go" and CPA would get some sort or recognition, 2nd by Joe.

Elections: Elections were held. Here are the results.

Vice President:	Joe Luskey
Treasurer:	Jeff Ehrich
Delegates:	Dean Reid & Nate Morreim

Joe made motion to adjourn, seconded by Joyce. Next meeting: February 13th
